Description:

Enjoy your own quiet retreat. Your private home away from home awaits down the 1/3 mile private lane to a working hobby farm complete with horses, cattle, and many other livestock. Bring your tackle to take a fishing break at the stocked pond. The guest house will accommodate a family of seven- dad, mom, and five children. However, the house is not really large enough to accommodate seven adults

This house is down a private long drive away from the noise and chaos of the city but still within a close distance to many attractions and businesses. Enjoy your day in the peace of a working hobby farm complete with cattle, horses, alpaca, sheep, pigs, and many different poultry. Currently we have three bottle fed calves. Be sure to ask us about helping with the feedings. Your stay will be a chance to unwind and just enjoy the quiet. You may even want to venture down to the stocked pond and enjoy some fishing. You can also take a short walk to the neighboring pick your own berry farm during the summer and fall.
